Crusoe

~~In this~~

In this review I'd like to describe my favorite book "Robinson Crusoe". Book takes the name of pro tagonist of the story Robinson Crusoe, which accidentally stuck alone on the island.

The story starts with Robinsone trying to escape his parents house in order finding adventures in the ocean. He escapes after a while but what happens next to him is the worst experience in his whole life. Firstly he becomes a slave after his boat getting captured by pirates. He escapes, but some years later he getting crushed on the island alone. He will spend over to next years surviving on this island.

But it is that bad? He builds a sweet house and farm while making new friends. He had animals: goats, cats and more. But good to him, he met a person and he named him Friday. Friday used to eat human flesh, but when he found about eating goat meat, it was over for his strange diet. Friday helped Robinsone escaping the island after what he finally returned home to his family.

I really love this book. I like genres such as survival or something realistic. The book teaching us not to do mistakes and take less risks while we are young. So I would highly recommend this book to younger generation.
